Joel Creasey in Political Animal!

Paul Keating famously once said 'politicians are just ugly celebrities' and Joel Creasey couldn't agree with him more.

In Political Animal, Joel tackles a subject which has long been considered taboo - politics - and proves just how rockstar it really is.

This comedy rock show will guide you through a step by step 'Beginner's Guide to Becoming Prime Minister', helping you on your quest to world domination, and residency at The Lodge.

Magic Pudding at the Metcalf Playhouse

By Norman Lindsay, adapted by Andrew James, music by Sarah de Jong. Magic Pudding is about friendship, persistence & the simple pleasures with an inventive mixture of song, verse, adventure and silliness.

"Eat away, chew away, munch and bolt and guzzle" with Albert, the cantankerous walking talking Magic Pudding, young koala Bunyip Bluegum and the noble Society of Puddin' Owners. Join their wanderings along the road, indulgin' in conversation, songs and stories ... and eatin' at regular intervals from the Pudding!

DRAG at the Metcalfe Playhouse

Original concept by Ryan Schulz.

"I don't want to be a woman... I want to be a STAR!"

A fabulous journey into the world of drag, led by the effervescent Panache, with live singing not just lip-sinc mime, it's the real thing!

DRAG is the story of a drag queen – of all drag queens – told with high emotion, high energy and hit songs. Go behind the curtain. You may be expecting a bloke in a frock that lip syncs to the campest music out. This production will take you into the drag realm and show you something else. Something more.
